The Town of The Blue Mountains would like to provide residents with an update regarding the return of Mayor Alar Soever.

“Mayor Soever has been monitoring and been in contact with Deputy Mayor Potter and myself over the past two weeks regarding the COVID-19 pandemic and we look forward to his return and leadership on Monday, March 23, 2020,” explained Chief Administrative Officer Shawn Everitt. “I would like to extend my gratitude to Deputy Mayor Rob Potter and to all members of Council for their support and dedication during Mayor Soevers absence”.

“I look forward to returning to my duties as Mayor,” explained Mayor Alar Soever. “I understand and respect my health needs, and would like to assure residents that I am feeling well and ready to assume my duties subject to the advice of my doctor. I will be working collaboratively with the Council and the Town’s Senior Management Team to deal with the effect of the COVID-19 crisis on our residents. Our first priority continues to be ensuring the continued operation of critical and essential municipal services.
