

Thornbury Business Improvement Area Update – May 13, 2019

The BIA has the following events planned for this year:

- summer event
- -Music in the park
- -Fall Harvest Festival
- -Old Fashioned Xmas

Budgets have been set and planning committees are underway.

- Budget has been set and plans are underway to replace and add additional street lights for the Thornbury Village
- A new video has been produced that showcases Thornbury and Clarksburg as art communities and promotes visitation. The video will be on the BIA Website. This is the second in a series of promotional videos highlighting the area and will be promoted in social media.
- A new business called Daisy Market featuring refilling of health products is now open.
- Two new restaurants are in the construction phase due to open shortly.
- plans are underway to explore site improvements of the BIA area.