Dear Third Party Advertiser,

Re: 2022 Municipal Election

The registration package contains the forms you will require to properly register yourself as a Third Party Advertiser and to be prepared for your advertising campaign. It also contains other information, such as a "2022 Third Party Advertisers' Guide" published by the Province of Ontario.

It is your responsibility to identify, understand and follow the obligations of a Third Party Advertiser as they are set out in the relevant legislation and in the other procedures that are established for this election.

The Town Clerk (or her designate) will meet with you when you file your notice of registration to provide you with the Third Party Advertiser package. If questions of the Town Clerk arise during the course of the election, please submit them in writing to townclerk@thebluemountains.ca.

Further information will be distributed to you when it becomes available. Please monitor the Town's election webpage <https://www.thebluemountains.ca/town-hall/council-committees/elections> for information updates.

Yours truly,

Corrina Giles, CMO
Town Clerk
